BROOKLYN, NY (November 10, 2022) — Company XIV is thrilled to announce the return of Nutcracker Rouge, its signature baroque burlesque confection. Known for keeping adoring audiences on their toes, this 12th anniversary production features an impressive cacophony of tempting sweets performed by starlets of NYC's nightlife circuit.

The role of Marie-Claire, the blossoming heroine at the center of Company XIV's naughty reimagining of the classic ballet, is shared by the jubilant Chanel Stone and Christine Flores. Cunio's Freddy Mercury-tinged voice performs somersaults in an encore rendition as Drosselmeyer. Scintillating burlesque performer Lilin reprises the role of Cherry, while Troy Lingelbach contorts over a trapeze as Turkish Delight. Amazonian Rockstar triumphs vocally as Cream and serenades Jon Joni and XIV newcomer Queen Ravenden while they soar above the audience as Champagne in a brand-new aerial duet. Other breathtaking acts include Nolan in straps as Candy Cane, Joey Columbus and Nicholas Katen in a Nutcracker Rouge has been heralded as "RAUCOUS AND RISQUÉ" (The New York Times), "THE PERFECT HOT DATE" (TimeOut NY) and "THE GREATEST HOLIDAY HOMAGE EVER" (HuffPost). A limited, 14-week return engagement plays through January 29, 2023 at Théâtre XIV. Tickets start at $95. Champagne Couches for Two People start at $395 and include a half bottle of champagne. Guests at a special New Year's Eve celebration performance will enjoy a welcome cocktail, scrumptious hors d'oeuvres and a midnight toast.
