

Company XIV | Théâtre XIV
Part Time Stitcher

Pay: hourly rate commensurate with experience

Schedule: Part Time-to be determined with Costume Shop Supervisor

COMPANY XIV

Company XIV fuses dance, theater, circus, opera, burlesque and decadent design to create one-of-a-kind theatrical experiences inspired by the court culture which flourished under the reign of Louis XIV. Founded by Artistic Director Austin McCormick in 2006, the company produces several 360-degree immersive productions annually at its 175-seat Théâtre XIV in Bushwick, Brooklyn. XIV's commitment to pushing boundaries is unparalleled, employing dozens of eclectic artists annually in immersive and genre-defying baroque burlesque productions. Recent mainstage events include Nutcracker Rouge, Cinderella, Seven Sins, Cocktail Magique and Queen of Hearts.

POSITION

In search of a part time stitcher in our Company XIV costume shop for construction of a new production November-February. Potential candidates must know standard industry construction techniques, and have least intermediate sewing skills. Costume crafting skills are also of interest. Company XIV celebrates human diversity and encourages all qualified candidates to apply, including LGBTQIA+, people of color, immigrants and differently-abled people.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be comfortable on industrial and home machines.
- Must be able to maintain a professional, quiet and concentrated work environment.
- Astute attention to detail, strong organizational and adaptability skills
- Genuine excitement about being part of a small team.

TO APPLY

Send resume and cover letter to Zane Pihlstrom, Costume Designer via jobs@companyxiv.com with XIV Stitcher: [YOUR NAME] as the subject.